Dear Hubert,

Thank you for your letter of June 24 and I must apologise to you for the delay in replying to it.

I must also apologise for the delay in sending you the Oxford chapters, promised so long ago. As you correctly surmised, circumstances last year made it very difficult for me to continue with the biography, but I have now got down to writing again and hope to complete the Life this year. I have been revising the Oxford chapters and my wife is retyping them and they should reach you within the next fortnight. I shall be glad to have your appraisal of them.

I am sorry to hear about your arthritis and do hope that it is now yielding to treatment and you will soon be fit again.

Kindest regards.

Yours sincerely.
