Dear Mr. Bull,

Acting on instructions from my boss I am returning to you the three Hofmeyr letters you so kindly sent. As you say, they are very typically 'Hoffie'. The one show his enthusiasm for cricket, the second his thoughtfulness, and the third his moral rectitude and courage, all of which were very definitely Hofmeyr characteristics.

Most of the collecting for the biography is now complete. It has been interesting work and somehow I think Alan is going to make a good job of it.

My love to you both - I hope you both keep well.

Yours very sincerely,
