Dear Professor Callan:

Your permissions for the Alan Paton volume seem to have been taken care of--satisfactorily, I hope.

The collected columns of Alan Paton's writings for Contact might indeed make a most interesting book. We would like very much to consider them when you have something ready to show. While I have seen some of these articles, the majority of them will be new and should throw additional light on an intolerable situation.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,

L. H. Brague
