Dear Randolph,

This is the reply to mine from Alan, received today. Rather defensive and in some respects sad to read. He's very good at finding out abscism, but not so hot at taking it, but I'm glad he's taking out all that stuff on John Harris, or so he says. (The Radio Haysman information).

I'll let you have a copy of my reply I send him, when there is time, but it will not be a long letter. Hope you back is better.

Yours
Adam.
