Dear Dr. Esiemoka:

I have prepared an article on Hubert Ogunde for the Educational Theatre Journal, and I would like to have your permission to quote the autobiographical statement by Ogunde entitled "My Struggles" which appeared in New Era, Volume 2, No. 10 (March 1973), pp. 19-21. Since the Educational Theatre Journal is a non-commercial educational publication, it cannot offer to pay for the material it uses. However, New Era will be credited as the place of original publication and I will see to it that you receive a copy of the issue in which the article appears.

I hope this arrangement is agreeable. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely yours,

Bernth Lindfors, Associate Professor
English and African Literatures
