Bibliography and Sources

(1) Work by Nadine Gordimer

All work in this section is by Nadine Gordimer unless otherwise stated. The material has been divided into categories, and each category has been arranged in chronological order. All typescripts are in Nadine Gordimer’s possession; I am grateful to her for allowing me to use these as well as other material.

(a) FICTION BY NADINE GORDIMER

Including uncollected early works, unpublished material and first publication of some early short stories.

'The valley legend', Children’s Sunday Express (Johannesburg), 31 September 1938, p. 1.

'No place like home', P.S., December 1943, pp. 7-8.

'Is there nowhere else we can meet?', Common Sense, September 1947, pp. 387-9.

'The train from Rhodesia', Trek, September 1947, pp. 18-19.

'Ah, woe is me', Common Sense, December 1947, pp. 537-41.

'The amateurs', Common Sense, December 1948, pp. 540-4.

'Poet and peasant', Haabalam Roth Hashanah Annual, September 1949, pp. 20-9, 31, 47.

'Face to Face (Johannesburg: Silver Leaf Books*, 1949).

Untitled and unfinished novel (typescript; c. 1951), pp. 1-84.

'A story from the top shelf', Israel Affairs, April 1952, pp. 41-4.

(b) COMMENTARY ON WRITING

'Writing belongs to us all', The Forum, September 1954, pp. 9-10.

'What shall I write about?' (typescript; c. 1961), pp. 1-18.

'Party of one', Holiday, July 1963, pp. 12, 14-17.

'Notes of an expropriator', The Times Literary Supplement, 4 June 1964.

'The interpreter: theme as communication in the African novel', paper presented at the 1968 National Arts Winter School, University of the Witwatersrand, Johannesburg (Africana Library, University of the Witwatersrand).

Bibliography

The Late Bourgeois World (London: Cape; New York: Viking; 1966).

A Soldier’s Embrace (London: Cape; New York: Viking; 1980).

254

'From apartheid to Afrocentrism', South African Outlook, December 1977, pp. 87-9, 92.

Spro -Cas/Ravan, 1973).

'What being a South African means to me', South African Outlook, June 1977, pp. 87-9, 92.

Orientation week address, delivered at the University of the Witwatersrand, 8 February 1982 (typescript), pp. 1-11.

(d) ON CENSORSHIP

'The voices we may not hear', Rand Daily Mail (Johannesburg), 13 August 1966, rpt as 'How not to know the Africans', Cosmopolitan, no. 15 (March 1967), pp. 44-9.

'Catastrophe of the ridiculous', The Times, 2 July 1975, p. 11.

'South Africa: the way writers live now' (typescript, incomplete; after 1975), pp. 1-6.

Address to the CSA Award Dinner, 17 April 1980 (typescript), pp. 1-7.

Address to a conference on Censorship, University of Cape Town, April 1980 (typescript), pp. 1-14.

(c) POLITICAL AND HISTORICAL COMMENTARY

'Where do whites fit in?', The Twentieth Century, April 1959, pp. 325-31.

'Why must we close the borders?', Rand Daily Mail (Johannesburg), 24 September 1964 (on the refusal of a passport to Nat Nakasa), Foreword to Cosmas Desmond, OFM, The Displaced People (Harmonds­

'Where do whites fit in?', The Twentieth Century, April 1959, pp. 325-31.

'Why must we close the borders?', Rand Daily Mail (Johannesburg), 24 September 1964 (on the refusal of a passport to Nat Nakasa), Foreword to Cosmas Desmond, OFM, The Displaced People (Hammonds­

'Why must we close the borders?', Rand Daily Mail (Johannesburg), 24 September 1964 (on the refusal of a passport to Nat Nakasa), Foreword to Cosmas Desmond, OFM, The Displaced People (Harmonds­

'Speak out the necessity for protest', the sixth E. G. Malherbe Academic Freedom Lecture, delivered at the University of Natal, 11 August 1971 (Durban Academic Freedom Committee, University of Natal, 1971).

(b) BIOGRAPHICAL AND AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL

'Don Manera' (typescript c. 1975), pp. 1-16.

(b) BOOKS AND ARTICLES ON NADINE GORDIMER

Delaire, M., 'A writer who is hardest hit', Rand Daily Mail (Johannesburg), 3 May 1978.

Ellis, N. W., 'In black and white', Harper's and Queen, November 1978, pp. 296-9.

Delaire, M., 'A writer who is hardest hit', Rand Daily Mail (Johannesburg), 3 May 1978.

Ellis, N. W., 'In black and white', Harper's and Queen, November 1978, pp. 296-9.

Delaire, M., 'A writer who is hardest hit', Rand Daily Mail (Johannesburg), 3 May 1978.

Ellis, N. W., 'In black and white', Harper's and Queen, November 1978, pp. 296-9.

Delaire, M., 'A writer who is hardest hit', Rand Daily Mail (Johannesburg), 3 May 1978.

Ellis, N. W., 'In black and white', Harper's and Queen, November 1978, pp. 296-9.

Delaire, M., 'A writer who is hardest hit', Rand Daily Mail (Johannesburg), 3 May 1978.

Ellis, N. W., 'In black and white', Harper's and Queen, November 1978, pp. 296-9.

The Novels of Nadine Gordimer

Nell, R. J., Nadine Gordimer: novelist and short story writer, a bibliography of her works and selected literary criticism, University of the Witwatersrand, 1964.

Bibliography

(c) REVIEWS CONSULTED IN:

African Communist

Bibliotheca
guardiana

Contrast

London Review of Books

Journal of Southern African Studies

New Society

New Statesman

New York Times

Observer (London)

Observer (Johannesburg)

Quarries

Rand Daily Mail (Johannesburg)

Sunday Times (London)

The Times (London)

The Times Literary Supplement

(d) NEWSPAPERS CONSULTED

Guardian Weekly (London/Manchester)

Guardian Weekly (Johannesburg)

Rand Daily Mail (Johannesburg)

Sunday Express (Johannesburg)

Sunday Times (Johannesburg)

Vanderland (Johannesburg)

Weekly Mail (Johannesburg)

(e) OTHER INTERVIEWS

Bazos, C., Johannesburg, 29 April 1980.

Mphahlele, E., Johannesburg, 1 May 1980.

(f) South African History

Including social history, memoirs and autobiographies of the period.

Abrahams, P., Return to Golf (London: Faber, 1953).

Adam, H., Modernizing Racial Domination (Berkeley, Calif.: University of California Press, 1971).

260

261

Fighting Talk, available issues September 1945 to February 1963.

First, R., One Hundred and Seventeen Days (Harmondsworth: Penguin, 1965).

The Novels of Nadine Gordimer

Luckhardt, K. and Wall, B., "Organizer... or Slave? The History of the South African Congress of Trade Unions" (London: Lawrence & Wishart, 1980).

Mphahlele, E., "Doum Second Avenue" (1959; London: Faber, 1971).

Nkosi, L., "Obituary", in Can Themba, "The Will to Die", writings selected by Donald Stuart and Roy Holland (London: Heinemann, 1972, pp. vii-xi).

Robux, E., "Time Longer Than Rope" (Madison, Wis.: University of Wisconsin Press, 1972).

Bibliography

A Survey of Race Relations in South Africa, 1951-1977 (Johannesburg: South African Institute of Race Relations), compiled annually by M. Horrell, except:

The Novels of Nadine Gordimer

Luckhardt, K. and Wall, B., "Organizer... or Slave? The History of the South African Congress of Trade Unions" (London: Lawrence & Wishart, 1980).

Mphahlele, E., "Doum Second Avenue" (1959; London: Faber, 1971).

Nkosi, L., "Obituary", in Can Themba, "The Will to Die", writings selected by Donald Stuart and Roy Holland (London: Heinemann, 1972, pp. vii-xi).

Robux, E., "Time Longer Than Rope" (Madison, Wis.: University of Wisconsin Press, 1972).

Bibliography

A Survey of Race Relations in South Africa, 1951-1977 (Johannesburg: South African Institute of Race Relations), compiled annually by M. Horrell, except:

The Novels of Nadine Gordimer

Cooker, J., M. (With Brian Clough), The Second Stage (Johannesburg: Raven, 1974).
La Guma, A., and a Threeway Cord, introduction by Brian Bunting (Berlin: Seven Seas, 1964).

Bibliography

Mphahlele, E., Charonia (Johannesburg: Raven, 1979).
Senhance, M., To Every Birth its Blood (Johannesburg, Raven, 1981).
Tshemba, C., The Will to Die, writings selected by Donald Stuart and Roy Holland (London: Heron and Hyemen, 1972; rpt. 1976).
van der Post, L., In a Province (London: Hogarth Press, 1934).
(5) African Literary Criticism, General Literary Theory and Criticism; Other Works

