Dear Dr. Jones,

Would you please send me Numbers 1, 2 and 3 of the CBCL Newsletter and renew my subscription for the coming year. Enclosed is $2.50.

Have you seen a copy of the new bi-annual journal, Journal of the New African Literature, edited by Joseph Okpaku, a Nigerian student at Stanford? You can order it -- 2 dollars a year -- from The Editor, Box 4392, Stanford University, Stanford, California.

I am pleased to report that a version of my "Post-War Literature in English by African Writers from South Africa: a Study of the Effects of Environment Upon Literature" (which you announced in the last issue of the Newsletter) has been published in Phylon, 27:1 (1966), 50-62. I have also had a review-article on "Nigerian Novels of 1965" in Africa Report, 11:6 (June 1966), 68-69, as well as reviews of African books in the Winter, Spring and Summer issues of Books Abroad.

Sincerely yours,
