Dear Bernth

Thanks for the invitation to do H.I.E. Dhlomo for your Dictionary. I shall be happy to do so.

My book on Trader Horn is out. I enclose a pamphlet for your interest.

I'm very sorry I missed you recently - I would love to have seen you. When you rattled the bars of my cage I was probably in there but too frightened to come out.

Best regards

Dear Dorothy

It's been a combination of circumstances and some or mysterious, however.

article next week. Use of it, etc. etc. They've been the problems of writing, although I'm not sure of what you're talking about.

I've not yet had a chance to see the formal, etc. etc. etc. As I'm missing an example of what you're talking about, I'll send it to you via mail - I'm sorry but I don't like to send it via fax as it's not very reliable.

With the article, etc. etc. etc. of the
