Dear Professor I

On checking my files, I see that I never sent you a contract for James M. Muli to fill out and sign for the fine essay he did on you and your work for the Dictionary of Literary Biography. You had requested me to do so in your letter of 7th February (FAX NO. 310757), but somehow that letter got filed away before the job got done. I am enclosing a contract now. Please ask him to return it to me as soon as possible.

John Ruganda did send a good photo of himself that we will be able to use with your essay on him. We also have a cartoon prepared by a Nigerian artist. The same artist has done ~~another~~ you based on one of the photos you sent. I don't know if the publisher will use any of these hand-drawn illustrations, but I do think they would add visual interest to the book.

The publisher has said the book will be coming out in 1995, but he hasn't given us a firm date yet. I'll send more details when I have heard something definite.

Hope you are having a good summer.

Best wishes.
