

AUTOBIOGRAPHICAL NOTE ON JAMES MULI

BORN: 1.3.1966

Went through Alliance High School before joining Kenyatta University (1987 - 1990) where he took a Bachelor of Education degree and majored in Theatre Arts.

Has written various plays (unpublished) notable of which was The Rehearsal which won first position in the Kenya National Playwriting Competition 1992. Others: The Total Man, Anthem Overalls, Defiled Dreams, e.t.c. He has directed and acted in various plays among which are: Joe de Graft's Muntu, Imbuga's, The Successor, Ruganda's The Burdens, Patty Maddy's YON KON E.T.C.

He has also written a novel NO TEARS now being considered for publication. He is currently a renowned adjudicator of the Annual Kenya National Schools and Colleges Drama Festivals.

He is a Master of Arts (Literature) finalist at Kenyatta University researching on 'Trends and Social Function of Contemporary Urban Theatre: A Case Study of Nairobi'.