UNIVERSITY OF ZIMBABWE

Dear Bernth,

Thanks for your letter re the Mungoshi article. I do have a lot on my plate just now, but I had a word with Ray Brown in the Department and I am sure that between us we could produce the essay you want. He has a long acquaintance with Mungoshi's work and will be thorough. If you are prepared to accept a joint essay we are willing to do it. Presumably the $100 payment remains the same - it seems such a modest amount for what is presumably a commercial venture.

We would be grateful for the guideline material as soon as possible so that the searching can get going during our long vacation.

No doubt you will be coming this way again - look forward to seeing you.

Yours sincerely,

T.O.

Dear Bernth,

Herewith the paper on Mungoshi from Ray Brown and myself. We have tried to fathom the several 'Instructions' - and are nearly there. What remains are these points -

1. Phone number for Charles is via his wife's dressmaking business - Harare 704996; no address available.
2. I have sent the other copy to Brucoli Clark Layman;
3. Please acknowledge the photographer;
4. Not much illustrative material, in spite of my requests to publishers. As usual some of them just did not respond at all - including Heinemann (who should be run out of town). Perhaps you could shake them up. I wrote for print numbers and for manuscript photocopy.

That's all for now. Best wishes.

Sincerely,

T.O.

T.O. McLoughlin

P.S. I spoke to Charles some time ago letting him know we were doing this piece. He has since been out of town. If you need to get hold of him (which I doubt) I suggest you send word to me and I shall track him down.

Regards.

T.O.
