Dear Phil;

Sorry that I kept you waiting so long for a reply, I hope you'll understand. I am very happy for your sake, to hear that your husband is coming home. I'm sure you'll come to Cape town, to fetch him. Please let me know, when you are coming. Ouma sends her very good wishes to you, she's still going on in health. Slows every body in Venulam, I haven't written to Jean for a very long time I've been very busy, I'll try and write this weekend. Victor is just busy with his sports training all the time, to keep him fit. Merusa Clint & Dister are all fine. The Weather in Cape town is changing, to cooler days, not so hot anymore, We can't complain about our summer it was like Durban. I hope when you come to Cape town we'll still have grapes, so please let me know, we are looking forward to your coming.

Love to all at home from us all.

Dear Phyllis,

First of all I must thank you very much for the lovely jersey, it fits me perfectly and I love it very much, and also thanks very much for the fantastic book you sent which it is splendid. Granny also read the book and ~~stated~~ ^{stated} with laughter after ~~she~~ had finished it. P.S. I didn't forget the ashtrays. I will send it when mother comes to Durban. It is very ~~at~~ cold in Cape Town, and I just dread getting up for work. How's the children

I hope they are all fine.

Please give my regards to Big Ben Please ask him to write to me. Clint had a lovely Birthday he is five now But too naughty. We all are keeping up thumbs for you, I would really like to see you again it was real nice meeting you for the first time. it's only a pity you couldn't stay longer. anyway. I will write to you again But first a reply from you anyway love to all.

Dear Phyllis,

I'm glad that you received your parcel, and also pleased that you liked the Dayles. We saw your photo in the Telegraph. We were so excited to see you, and Suckti. I am sorry to hear that you are not well, I hope you'll be well soon. I got your letter the 16th's. Dever never came to us, I suppose he was in a hurry, how's Mum & Dad, always thinking of them. Love to your two boys. We had lots of rain it is very cold, but one gets used to it. Granny spent the weekend with me she's looking forward to her holiday. please excuse my hand writing I've got a horrible pen, couldn't get a better one, somebody is always pinching mine. Victor is running cross country this weekend that is just busy with his puzzle and Merena went to Iren's party, her friend, that lives in the next road. Now I must close shop. love to all that I know in Durban
