

6.15 pm

Clothes for Pmr Unity Trial

19th, June, 1971.

My dear Navi,

Here I am, alone in this blasted house, feeling so impotent - While his lordship the Pm has been watching rugby.

1. Do you like the coat?
2. The underwear I cannot stand lacy, jussy things. My daughter wears it & plays house-house. It was thus washed & put away - Please use it, It's such a shame to waste it.
3. Am trying to find someone to bring you these clothes. I am angry with you for ^{not} letting me know earlier. I've got shoes & socks for Monday. So you'll be able to take it on Tuesday. Am so sorry about this.
4. On Monday bring me a specific order. You can just drop it here if late.
5. Suggest Mrs Eovack attend to the Laundry & clothes problems of all 14. It will be too much to cast up & down to Durban.
6. We should by the time of trial be able to get decent clothes for the boys to appear neatly attired - must not let our side down.
7. I am trying to get someone to get the newspapers to Doc - Got some 5 letters to Robben Island & my overseas mail is shocking behind time -

Love to Gabi & yourself

Yours house arrested,
Phyf.

208 Scala Centre,
1 Mansfield Road,
URBAN.

1st April, 1971.

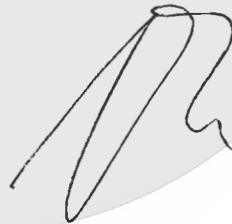

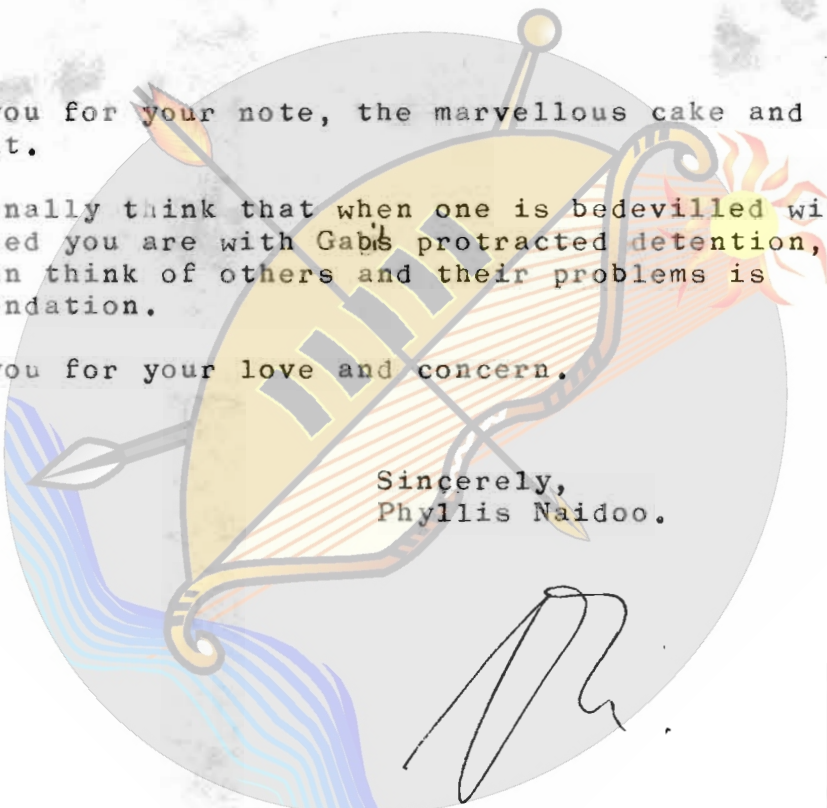

My dear Navi,

Thank you for your note, the marvellous cake and the beautiful thought.

I personally think that when one is bedevilled with one's own problems as indeed you are with Gabe's protracted detention, the fact that you can think of others and their problems is of the highest commendation.

Thank you for your love and concern.

Sincerely,
Phyllis Naidoo.

Dear Bill,
'A Token of my sympathy on the latest unjust imposition. - It is enough to crush the most dauntless spirit - but I don't think it will yours!

With Compliments
from

1/4/71

Navanethem Pillay & Co.

ATTORNEYS AND CONVEYANCERS
ADMINISTRATORS OF ESTATES

55 K. M. S. HOUSE,
173 GREY STREET,
DURBAN

Phones:
69545/60847

1/4/71