My dear Samuel,
Thank you for your letter. Did you get the money we sent. If you did not please let me know so that we can do something about you having a little extra for Xmas.

I had lunch with Mxenge today. He was well. I saw Albert who is employed at the same office. He saw my Xmas cards to some of you & felt awful. But Sniff promised to write to some of you. He is very busy. He does all the B.A.C. work & this takes him out of Durban.

We heard from Glorie - he has paid for social problems - but he will have to leave the hard way. Sheila has sent him some books & we shall send him some from our end to while away his loneliness.

Sam has been married in Johannesburg & sent to the Cape his home town.

Have you written any exams. What? What are your plans for next year. Make the best use of time - for soon you'll join the rat race - a time consuming process. So get your exams behind you.

Remember this is one Xmas less before you join your family & friends

Love
Paul.

My dear friends,

I thank you ever so much for your letter dated second June, which is very much appreciated, despite the fact that I have rather delayed before replying to it. I hope you will bear with me.

Regarding the money my brother promised to send me - shall I say - I have been, patiently, awaiting it. I have not received it yet; and I am badly in need of it. If possible, kindly find out from him what the reason is for this delay. If you will do that for me, I shall be very much grateful to you.

In part of health, I am still as sound as a bell, wishing you the same. Kindly give my compliments to our friends, and especially to my brother. I anticipate a reply, soon.

Your sincere friend,

Samuel Ndlanguisa.

Dear ^{Mr} ~~Mr~~ I received both your letter and the Xmas card that you sent me, and I'm very grateful to have people that always know their duty, that is particularly during this season.

I had received two letters prior to yours from sister P, also informing me that money had been sent by you, but up to now I have not yet received it despite the constant check in my account. It has been unfortunate now so that I would have liked to purchase some nicotins during Xmas.

However, I wish to express the fact that; I fully appreciate your efforts, and would not in the least place the inconvenience at your door. I expect that you shall not fail to make proper investigations on the matter, bearing in mind that I shall be on the way probably early next year in which case we may not be able to receive it in time.

I'm looking forward to seeing you all next year. I am pleased to learn the Albert is still around and keeping fine. I received the news about Glorie, and felt disturbed to learn about his social problems. In any event he has to acquaint himself with the set up in which he finds himself and make the best use of it. The books that you promised to send him will do him good because used to have in them intimate friendships.

I was unable to sit for exams because of the financial problem. It is rather very difficult for me to make definite plans about my future, so I propose to wait and judge the situation at the time I have to face it. I hope you will agree with me that one can't precisely be exact of ^{one's} future movements.

Pass my best regards to my family & friends, and that I hope that shall give me a fine reception.

Yours fraternally.
S. Velayudhan
