Dear Friends,

I must apologize for not writing to you earlier. Circumstances made this utterly impossible. No intention to show discourtesy was intended. Please excuse.

You will recall that MD was released on the 23rd May, of this year. We attempted a common life together, but this became increasingly impossible. We agreed to have a period apart, but this period has done anything but bring us closer together. We are finally separated and all that remains is the legal motions to be set into operation, and a final dissolution of our marriage.

The children afford the greatest problems. Right now the children are being used as footballs. I cannot bear this, and my hope is that the court action will bring some resolution into their lives.

It is all a ghastly mess.

I want to record my sincere thanks to you for showing such warm friendliness in the past, and want you to know that I am most appreciative of same.

Sincerely your,

Dear Alan & Joan,
