DURBAN.

Dear Mr. Meskin,

I had planned to say thank you for your assistance to my husband MD on his release from jail.

However within weeks of his return we found a joint life together impossible and separated. The children affording the greatest problem, - still so.

I subsequently learned that MD had walked out on the job offered him. I am deeply sorry about this, and wish to apologise for same.

My sincere wish for the best in the New Year to you and your family.

Yours sincerely,
Phyllis Naidoo
