Dearest Phyll,

Thank you very much for your letter and inviting us to Durban to stay with you for a holiday. What a lovely suggestion.

Boytyie suggested that I come by plane but now circumstances has changed and I do not think that I will be able to get away. I collapsed at work a week ago and has been very weak. The doctor suspected sugar and on Tuesday I had to see the Specialist, who confirmed same. They also took various test and blood samples as there might be a kidney infection as well.

I have to see the specialist on Monday morning, by then they hope to have results and will then decide what treatment to give me. Sometimes it can be a long drawn out procedure before they get any results, but I am trusting in the Man Above. I have lost a lot of weight but will have to loose a good deal more, as that is vital to my well being.

Now love I hope that you and our children are well and happy. Please extend my love to them. I owe Sakhti a letter which I hope shortly to write. Myra phoned yesterday and I asked her to let you know the happenings in the meantime. Anyhow I just feel now that I must write to you. Regards from Boytyie and the boys. Neil said yesterday "If I go to Durban then I must go stay with Auntie Phyll." He loves you very much.
Cheerio my FRIEND
Until next time Gretta
excuse feeble writing.
