

Dear Phyllis — <sup>to tolerant, our dictionary is packed.</sup>

Here's a schematic list of memories which are tucked away just behind Fern's & my cerebrums! (the chronology gets blurred but the love is always there):

- Hearing about a "famous" refugee lawyer who was written up in the Herald Tribune (Paris)
- Hoping to meet her
- Going to Willie & Betty's party
- Dawking & laughing with Michelle & a lady named Phyllis
- Visiting the flat on top of Dew Court (Why would a refugee with political savvy have a TV when I've boycotted them for years)
- The Revolution loves Louis Satchums himself
- The Revolution is human —
- Picnic with Mike Bohm & Helen
- Phyllis climbs (struggles up) her 15" mountain (registered with the local chief)
- Shopping bags up 4 flights of stairs
- Pre-teeny bopper with posters of Trevor Rayban (pardon spelling)
- hearing of Sukrithi's 1st party with the opposition (gender) & games they play (so what?! in the closet)
- Farewell to Swaziland, rose petals, tears, a circle of pure love & Willie's rear end
- letters, many letters & phone calls of stormy nights, rain, bugs, crooked lawyers

AUG 3, 1980

Now we're sitting in the Southern Sens lounge waiting for Richard Steele's parents & ordering "a large orange juice on the rocks" - what I would place this is complete w/ "non-white" toilet in the airport administration building while the atmosphere of the airport itself tries to be "nonracial"

We'd hoped to get a day room
but the minimum is a 6 hr. layover & they'd heard we'd already eaten at your house - we're lucky to get a snack voucher)

that far" (hope he wasn't referring to me!)

- The Quiet County Wedding - and all the work, & pots & files & potatoes & papadums &
fellowships (comradeships!)

Quiet ??
With 300 plus people milling around.

- The Farewell - and you with the flu, you died, - food, food, liquidfruit
in plastic brought by David,
charades, waxing, elephants (or was it horses), secret passed, around the room, (an illicit bottle of wine passed around as well) -

we didn't need the bottle tho
do be his
with the & laugh!

And so so much more - 5794
