

Dear Phyllis,

6.11.82

Thanks for your letter. We are sorry to hear of the sad loss of your brother & your other difficulties but have no doubt you will in due course overcome & reconcile to these setbacks, as always. We were so pleased to have you here. I have given your best wishes to Neville who was also very pleased to have met you & often talks about your visit. I have unfortunately mislaid your last letter so rang the N.P. Centre to find out correct box ~~no~~ number. They thought Suki had already come to England, so perhaps she is at St. Christophers already. Let us know if there is anything you want us to do. The weather is getting cold here but we still go on the beach with Penny, & breathe the ozone, free from London pollution. We are now waiting to see what the winter and storms do to our sea cliff but we have put up a fairly substantial wall which may help. Otherwise we shall have to realize like King Canute that eventually, though hopefully not in our lifetime, the sea will prevail. However, there are worse problems so we don't worry. You have much more important problems & as you know you have our support & best wishes always. Keep in touch. God bless.

from Lil & Bert (and Penny)
