My dear Cathy & Wayne, Here I am in Mbabane, jobless, afraid & hopeful — like little Pip of Dickens — I have great expectations.

The trip here was sad; parting with all of you was painful — then being sent SA was terrifying & very sad — so new yet so far!

The growth here is very lush unlike Masem — the mosquitos are rampant. The holiday Inn in business I live in a hut attached to a farmhouse — not as big as Monroe but quite nice.

I give Kay & Bill Hutch & the children our best — I shall treasure beautiful memories of their warmth.
If you're here & I am still here — you'll look for me won't you.

Thank you for a rare humane you displayed towards me — I shall remember you always with great affection

Phyllis Laidoo
