My dear Dot,
You should be home by the time this reaches you - Did you have a good trip? Company?
Do tell me about it.
Dwagiland gave me 5 days to pack up & get out on pain of going to Matoappa Prison. I did. I left for Gambia where my sister + 2 children I had not seen for 15 yrs was -
We had a lovely reunion.
Reks refused to change her school & wished to stay at Waterford in Dwagiland. She was also jealous of her SA passport - which made it difficult for me to stay in Gambia as visa problems obtain there & SA who gives my baby a bad time at the border. I will give her a worse time with the Gambian stamp - She also did not want to go to the U.K. - so I was forced to return here.
On Dot - I am so tired - so very tired - to add to the problems - I am jobless & homeless - I'm sure things will right themselves - in the mean time it's miserable.
Do write & let me share your strength

Love Phyllis
