OLIVE PUBLICATIONS

Olive (OD and T) is a non-government organisation which provides effective Organisation Development facilitation, training and information services to development-oriented organisations in South Africa.

We believe that our publications may be of interest to your organisation. Our annual information service aims at developing an increased understanding of organisation development practices and the context for them, in South Africa. It comprises a bi-monthly magazine (OD debate) as well as nine Working Papers focusing in-depth on OD-related topics. The service is in its third year of operation. Comments from readers about the service are:

"Innovative and informative - the series is sympathetic and imaginative in dealing with real, practical problems." Community Banking Foundation

"The publications are valuable as they enable us to gain access to views and information from the OD field. They are highly useful in the fast-changing environment within which we work."
Lawyers for Human Rights - Paralegal Training Project

"Really Relevant and Applicable (RRA!)" Ernst and Young

✦ "Quite refreshing and challenging." Community Based Development Programme

Olive also distributes publications originated by the Human Awareness Programme (HAP) Organisation Development Services, which closed last year. The most popular title in this range of materials is the BRIDGE Directory that provides a comprehensive database of NGOs in South Africa plus listings of RDP officials and conference venues.

We have enclosed details on the content and prices of the publications we distribute and the necessary order forms. We also attach a sample copy of the magazine OD debate to give you an idea of the topics and issues that are covered.

We urge you to consider ordering the Working Papers and the BRIDGE Directory, in particular, since these materials are definitely of interest to any users of your library who need information related to development and capacity building issues in South Africa.

We look forward to hearing from you!

Yours sincerely,
