

This map, issued by the Department of Information today, shows all the areas which have been proclaimed for the various race groups in Durban since 1958 to date. With the exception of a few small areas, the institution of group areas for the various race groups in Durban has to a large extent been completed, according to officials of the Group Areas Board.

182/42