Dear Phyllis + Sukkhi,

Just a note to wish you both all the best for Christmas + the New Year. In an hours time I will be on a bus to Forbes as we are spending Christmas with Alison.

For once Lesatho has been in the news - both in the London "Observer" and Amnesty, so I now know something about the situation.

One of the highlights of the years TV was just walking into the living-room as the soldier pulled up the Afrikaner flag & the flag pole fell down. Very symbolic.

I have also been reading about "Wonga Albert" which sounds terrific. SA has certainly changed allowing this to be shown. I do not suppose it will come to Australia but will certainly go & see it if it does.
Must go.

Love
Susan (& Bill)

Best wishes for Christmas and the New Year
