Exotic, Erotic Hyderabad

Dear Kathy, Wayne, (and by special satellite carbon, Phyllis),

The enclosed is not as obscene as the one you sent us Kathy, but it is more widely known (after all, he stands up 57 feet on top of a mountain!)....hope you enjoy it...or even pray to it as people here do. He is in meditation which is why the vines have grown up around his legs. Anyway...we enjoyed your letters (Kathy's which dispelled her fear of chaos in India) and Phyllis's wonderful joint letter to us all...which gave us a glimpse into the lives of many other folks....and thanks too Phyllis for the Lesotho Weekly's...after a thorough 10 minute reading we passed on the joy to the two Basotho living near Hyderabad. How Michael stays on, is anybody's guess. I think perhaps that is the most persuasive argument for the presence of his god that I can think of! (Wayne & Kathy...the Lesotho Weekly had more than a full page interview with the right irreverend father). Now, Phyllis, have you heard that Wayne is working on a secret strong-arm tactic to use against Botha? All Botha has to do is go to an exhibition in Southern California (his kind of place, no doubt) and wrestle with 'Wayne's Whamo' and whamo, so much for Botha. Hopefully the whole Nat'list Party will go with him! Wayne, we want a picture. In fact come July, we want a demonstration (I have been eating lots of CARE Bulgar wheat as I test the cooking in the 16,300 centres here...so I am actually fairly tough now)

We saw Madame Rosa last night...I think we'd seen that with Phyllis and ya'll? in Maseru....well done but sad movie...whew Robin Gibson visited us in January and Phyllis has no doubt heard various versions of his conversion to Lingam worship....but we will have to relate it to you, Wayne & Kathy, next July! Keep the 11th open for a big night in Chicago...and a week of gossip and tea thereafter....Phyllis...we hope now to be in London between 28th May and 3rd June.....staying a couple of days in Reading and the rest with you? - Hard to believe how time is marching on...dragging

And now it is Tues. morning - "Sahib" has gone off on a field trip for 3 days so I'm holding down the fort here. Yesterday was "Shiva nati" (the night women pray for their husbands & fast & meditation ... All night) in honour of great Shiva & his devoted wife) Ah, but the religion is corrupted here as well for a headline in the paper today proclaims it was celebrated as "Cinema nati" instead ... as theaters announced all night showings which were well attended ... & in a terrible mistake All India Radio played Ushnu devotional songs rather than Shiva songs! What to do? !! Monna & I took the kids from the Mother Teresa's home on a picnic in the afternoon. & to watch airplanes landing at the airport - The one little girl - about 6 yrs. old came to the home severely malnourished ... She is better now but eating is still serious business. She had eyes only for the food - no interest in airplanes, lakes, or balloons ... & is still too listless to talk or walk.!! A new Chief Minister for Andhra Pradesh was announced today. The reasons for the downfall of our Mrs. Gandhi puppet are not known - was his corruption discovered or just too obvious, his lack of education a drawback ... (he has as much as your own "Right Honourable"!) - who knows?
