My dear Bruno, Lois & Allyson,

Just remembered your note to me which I had no acknowledged when I saw you guys at the wedding.

Sorry. Wish when next you come we have a larger home to which the whole family can come to. But even if we dont we always have enough place or will make some.

I enclose copy of my letter to my brother who has been in detention for 45 days today. Why the heck they dont charge him for his illegal activities is beyond me. There are no charges hence the indeterminate detention. This is our law & order which we are exhorted to have respect for? We have had no respect for them, our dead for ages tell the story of our determination to rid ourselves of this insidious evil.

I am cooking for Suki's new Chemistry teacher. Bribe & corruption. But she is such a child that my motherly instincts wont allow me to let her go without a meal.

See you guys when next you get here.... wedding or not .

Love,

Phyl.
