My dear Ray,

My arms encircle you, to add to your strength in coping with your sister's death. And you are still alone. I salute you comrade.

Your letters of the 13/2, 15/2, posted on the 16/2 reached me today - Many thanks.

1. Reading you what ails me now - Brewith included.
2. Your memory is awful - the note for Ben thank again - is the one you asked me for.
3. News of Sintee excellent - she's an awful bugger. When she was at home she could find the time to write - now that she is working, I hope she is not upset about the children.
4. Ray - you is not known here - I brought the 1st copies. We want all the literature to be sent here - they are diplomatic bags. Whoever brings it must phone & leave a message at 22189/22688 - & say I should call & see them wherever they are.
5. One note for B is for you.
6. Ray forgive me - the baby is a girl - I've altered your note presumptuously
NOMAKHEWEZI - born 11/11/78.
U.D.I. baby.
7. No news from Charles - Is he well?
family.
8. Want to study for an M.A. here with a view to getting into university. No job/house - What aspect of Black literature do you recommend, - as a topic.
Love to you & Jack - Sintee & J's
