Dear Phyllis, 7.12.81.

Many thanks for card received this morning. We shall be very pleased if your daughter will get in touch with us when she comes to England.

We were all very sad to hear about Bishop Colin Winter. My brother in London was hoping to meet him but it was not to be. All my friends were greatly impressed by his appearance and the views he expressed so ably and sincerely on BBC television. He was a great & good man in all the best senses of the words, and he will always be Remembered by many of us, I am so sorry to hear about your mother.

We must all hope that the new year will bring us nearer to the kind of world we are all working for.

We hope it will bring better times for you & your family & all your friends, & all who believe in our just cause.

We are both well, but getting old, & hope you are all keeping well & in spite of difficulties God

Dear Myrtle

Thanks for letter.
We shall be pleased to see you when you come to England, which we understand is late in May next.
By that time we expect the weather will be greatly improved. Up to now it has been the coldest & worst winter I have ever known, & we have also had to contend with the cruel sea which has carried away our gangway to the beach & our sea-wall, & caused great damage. However, no lives were Love & our troubles are small compared with many others. I suppose you will get in touch with your English friends including Frank Simmons. Any help we can give with ideas we will gladly give, of course; we'll talk this over when you 'phone in the meantime all our love & best wishes.
