Dear Des

I wrote to you a little while back & you came to see me in response to such letter. I promised to let you have a letter the same afternoon.

However this inexplicable delay tells a story.

Will you please write to me, giving me details of Sunnys requirements immediately.

Regards.

Phyllis Randa

P.S. You'd be surprised when I tell you I earn £40.00 & all this letter writing is both time consuming & costly.
