Dear Phyllis,

It was such a pleasure to hear from you and to know you are still alive and out of jail.

We had worried a lot about W.P.'s fate as we had not heard the result of his appeal.

We were very much impressed by the quiet courage with which you bear the imprisonment of your husband. You should not doubt that we share with you the painful sorrows caused by the cruel detention of our glorious friends.

I have asked Florence Mbele to collaborate with you in sending some small gifts to our friends in prison. I sent her a cheque of R50- for this purpose.

She shall be seeing you about it soon.

We are doing very well. The practice is growing fast. We have recently acquired a house near Town on very large grounds. Edith is teaching at a girls school about 2 miles from home.

Give our regards to our friends.
