My dear Phyllis,

Thank you for your card, but I was so sorry to hear your sad news. It must be desperately disappointing, after having waited so long for your husband, to find you were no longer compatible. I can imagine how easily this could happen. Is there any possibility of getting together again after M.D. has had time to adjust to life outside prison? It must take time to get orientated to family life again after having had only to consider oneself, however harsh the conditions. Gail & I feel so sad for you both - and the children.

We also extend our sympathy on the loss of your Father. Your cup of sorrow has surely been full & we trust there will be brighter times ahead for you.

I hope your children are all well. Katie had her tonsils out at the end of December & made a quick recovery. She has certainly been better without them! Jonathan is a sturdy little boy & seems to be growing up fast now. He will be 3 next month. The other day he announced in the bath, "I don't like Mummy, I don't like Daddy, I don't like Katie, but I DO like ME"!! The egocentricity of the young!

Well Phyllis, I do so hope we shall hear happier news from you soon.
Our love to you & the children.
Pam & Cyril.
