

You say you are "temporarily" at the address you gave me. Is the office there temporarily, or is it your job that is not permanent?

Saw your brother Paul briefly at our house a few weeks back. We didn't have a chance to talk as I'd have liked, as there was a meeting in progress for the setting up of the Rail disaster fund. Everyone here is most impressed with, & grateful for the concern shown by the Indian community from as far afield as Stanger. Esp. as there wasn't a single Indian involved in the smash. Whites haven't contributed anything like as generously, & Africans very little. I don't blame the latter for the smallness of their contribution, but for their apparent lack of interest in the organising side of things. There's probably a reason for it.

All well with the Cursons.
 The children write their exams shortly. Nigel, with his mami in I weeks is the only one I worry about. Not about the results (which aren't after all so vital) but because it's a pretty tense-making time for him, or it will be a sad blow to his self-confidence if he doesn't make it.
 It's worse for him because Chris succeeds in most things with such apparent ease. He does work very hard — at sport as well as studies, — but that sort of dedication is in itself a gift, don't you think?

We must have seen his name in the paper quite frequently, with his canoeing successes. He's doing quite well.
 Don't know when I'll see you. Not too distant future I hope. Having my mother in Durban absorbs what little time I have available when I'm there.
 My love as always
 Wendy.
