My dear Phyllis,

28/3/74.

I received your letter sent at your request ~~from~~ ^{by} your legal firm and decided to write after reading the views of the Court's decision.

Quintie and I were distressed that circumstances, that could have been avoided, has now resulted in divorce. I expect both you and Jim D., as parents of the lovable children, and having undergone such terrible traumatic experience, will always regard that the break-up would have some effect, psycholog-ically, on the children. Unfortunately, this has been the case in many instances where the situation was similar. However, now that the die has been cast, we then hope that both you and Jim D. as parents, will realize that it is not the end of it all. There will be occasions eg. when your children marry, that you both will attend on their marriage day. Re custody of the children, we are aware of the Court's decision. How has your mother taken it? Are you still living at Seal's Bluff?

Quintie at the present time is in bed with Angina trouble. She has to rest in bed ^{for some weeks.} as she is getting on in years (68 in Oct. this year) such ailments can be expected.

Conclude with our loves & best wishes for the ~~best~~ children's future and yours affectionately.
Auntie Bob.
