millions are poured down the rain on ornaments & no one thinks that if that money was spent on feeding the hungry in the world, such things as ornaments wouldn't be necessary.

This year I've been looking for some where else to live - I'm not keen to stay in the South - it gets more like a 'rat race' here & as I'm retired there is no need for me to stay - I'm hoping to move to the midlands near Nottingham & it's probable my sister in law, living near Tottenham, will join me. - My problem is selling this bungalow.

Any one seems so laid up, that they can't afford doing even a mortgage. The property situation here is very different from yours. I know.
I was dicker to buying a place on mortgage because there was no where to rent, especially for single people. Of course, I was lucky to be able to do it.

Well - want step I hope to hear from you some time
