remember how many pairs)

My own life has had its ups & downs
- my mother age 87 was ill for a very long time and finally died on Nov 4, which entailed quite a bit of upheaval. However, now things seem to have settled down a bit. Work has also been getting me down - so many of the patients needed constant "daily living" practice (dressing, washing etc.) that I felt I just couldn't cope, so the person over me is going to send someone to help with one lot while I get on with the other lot.

As you see, I have moved my living house, and this also caused some disturbance.

Have just done up 10 parcels for Rhodesia & S.A, so feel quite pleased with myself.

My greatest achievement lately has been to make it possible for a Rhodesian girl, the daughter of one of the men in detention who I have been keeping in touch with, to come to U.K. to study nursing. She is now safely in Wales.

all the way, I do wish all the best for you for the coming year.

Love,

Catherine.
