Darling Phyllis,

You're too much!  What delicious cakes & what a lovely party we had with them. No words to say thank you - poor old Zuma only got one big piece!

How are you? & Happy New Year.

We are all fine this end but very busy. The kids have just got back from seeing Dave but as usual I can't get a word out of them. Anyway he is well & strong.

Now - thank you for the dish cloth - you're wary. When are you coming? Make it soon & stay with me for a change. Favours - I send all love & traces. I'm sending the kids back with Ede Zola.

I love you
