

Pop in and say hello whenever I can. I saw Mildred on Saturday last - we play tennis at the Tech.

She said Mogan was well and busy and likewise the rest of them.

Dad is well and all smiles again. It's a great relief for Mum and all of us. He is even contemplating making a trip abroad with Mum at the end of this year, to see my brother and sisters there, if all goes well.

I have been to the Tongaat Textiles Showroom in Durban about the fabric you require. They didn't have samples to give away but one of the designers, known to me, has promised to let me have a few samples from the factory and I will send some to you as soon as she does.

It's a pity that Sukthi couldn't make that trip. I hope her father makes arrangements to have her over in December. I am sure that will placate her. Tell her I said hello. I remember both your sons well. How are they, where are they and what are they doing? Give them my regards.

How lucky you made it for that student at Roma House is he doing. Your pain killers doubt be well rewarded.

What with all that bombing going on there - most disturbing. Please take care - I worry about the safety of all of you.

I am enclosing two little shells I picked up for you from the shores of the Targuett beach. I hope you don't lose them in unfolding this letter. Pretty - aren't they?
lots of love. Keep well
