Dear Phyl

Sue's suggested I say hello as she is about to put off a package to you & I'd include it. So: hello. It's good to know that you're alright (your daughter said she spoke to you last night) & keep it up your own Dad. Have you thought seriously about a short holiday?
Next year you'll be here & it'll be good to see you again - no chance of us getting down south before then - no money.

Am thinking about working again - if I can get an interesting job I'll probably take it like a shot.

Must stop & continue later at more leisurely rate. Your daughter is showing up at the bit to be off.

Rushad is 3 years old on the 1st Sept + today Nuna is 6 months old.
And on the 5th June will have been a year at school at St Christophers.

And I've got lots of grey hair
And the sun has been shining brightly & tonight they say there'll be a shower of shooting stars.

Maybe the heavens will start claiming responsibility for goodness again.

Keep well.

Love from

Foszia Stevo Rushad - Nuna
