

Dear Auntie Phyllis,

How are you? Here we are fine. We took photos on Wednesday, but we can only get them on Friday because Thursday is a holiday: Ascension day. I am very sorry I couldn't write to you because I keep forgetting when I have time. We are full of homework. Soon we'll write our final exams.

With all my love your Eythri. Gyathri.

+ Love greet my cousins in South Africa. But we shall send the photos as soon as possible.
