

Dear Suks

My but you're sure have grown, from the last time I've seen you. Wait <sup>til you've</sup> ~~and~~ seen me, I sure am big in size like the rest of my ~~crinkles~~.

Last night one of your ~~mom's~~ friend's, mistook me for you. The way I laughed, Just image, how much the ~~to~~ two of us must look alike.

I've just finished my letter to Sha and I've told him how hopeless I am, at writing letters. If it you think it's true or not the next time you write to me please tell me.

During our half-yearly exams I got a 64% pass, not to bad but I can improve, don't you think so. For English I got 64%, Afrikaans I just made it by one mark ha, ha, ha - 41%, Mathematics 82% - Genius at maths, don't you think so History 66%, Geography 10%, Housecraft 68%, Accountancy 46%, very, very bad, must improve. Here comes my favourite subject - MUSIC - I simply love them because I am a genius at it and as for recorder practicals I just can't stand it when it comes to the exams.

I think that's enough of my nonsense for now.

love
