Dear Subs,

How are you? We are on holiday and we are staying at your mums place. We went to Kingsway cinema. We watched, The Party and to guess who was acting, Peter Sellers. and we watched a Silver Streak with Richard Pryor and Jean Wilder.

I came out eleventh in class. My dad said for the final exams if we come out in the first five he is going to buy us B.M.X bikes. How is your school? Are they treating you well? Is it snowing there or is it just cold.

Yesterday was (t) Thursday and it was mummy's birthday. We gave her a big party and a disco for her. Mummy turned 33 and Niece is also 33. I hope you like this poem: Things like Money, Bees like Honey, But I love you and that is so true.

Love
