Dear Maggie,

Please note my address. I've lost the box now that I am not practising Law. This is my home and you are welcome as always to visit, to share a cup of coffee.

I cannot recall whose detention I wrote to you about. I have been wanting to publish short stories on where are they now? It has always fascinated me that we confronted a sophisticated, mostly literate why I remember that the cabinet of 1948 - all university graduates with several degrees per person, well resourced and a minority. We were illiterate, in poor health, hungry, poorly resourced - Oom Nel was the commander without military training of MK, when established.

I am proud that we gave our energies to the democratization of our country. My pain is that my boys did not live to experience it. They were equipped to deal with the problems that bedevil us today. Did I tell you that Sandhan did not own a suit in the 28 years he lived. Sha bought a suit 3 months before he died (33) to attend a Science conference at which he read a paper.

What operation are you having and when. Can you not come here for the Winter?

My daughter Suks has in two years of marriage produced 2 boys Buck and Louis. The latter is 2 months old. They live in Zimbabwe and are on holiday in Cape Town at the moment.

Please change my address in your book. It will be lovely to see you. There is a bed for you whenever you come.

Much love to you

Phyllis Naidoo.
