Tuesday 15 th April

My dear Jane,

I did reply to your last letter and acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 6th April. Thank you.

Today is the 8th anniversary of the death of my son. He was assassinated at 9.15 on Saturday the 15th April, 1989, 11 days after his 28th birthday. So Ive had a devilish day.

You have had to deal with this pain from the 8th January, 1978. So sorry Jane.

On Saturday I went to the memorial meeting of the 7 comrades whose bodies were dug up on a farm. Some have been buried for 7 years. A witness at the TRC said that 2 Vula comrades were thrown into the Tugela river. The family was beside themselves. They wanted their son's body to bury.

Have you seen Jan. Ive not heard her on TV with the TRC.

Dont tell me about doctors. Sha paid over 100,000 rand and they still killed him off. Awful that you pay so much for doctors.

Do take care Jane. Lots of love.

Phyllis Naidoo
