Hi, I am afraid that I have just read your 7pages just now. Thank goodness you sleep so that you dont feel my wrath. I have told you to write to Narissa months ago and now you ASK ME FOR HER EMAIL ADDRESS AND JUNAID'S. Why could you not write and tell them you will be getting in touch once you were sure that you would be coming.

Do you really expect a University to arrange a programme for you at such short notice. I AM BUSY, BUSY. Only got home at 12.00 last night. Have the FLU and now your vagaries. < ramdhani@pixie.udw.ac.za > @ <junaid@fineline.co.za> j

As arranged my programme was tailored to your coming on the 9th. My work would be over by the 8th and I would travel to JHB thereafter. It cannot be done now. So book to come here and let me know when you arrive we will pick you up. Perhaps your return trip will be less traumatic and we will be able to drive you.

The car that Rodney was to lend you has been stolen - not to worry - we shall overcome. Gonda phones she had no lights. I told her to go to hell. There is a programme on rock art just now. I have to lecture at 2pm. I see funders at 5pm. So get the hell out. Just give me facts, problems, whatever you want me to do - buggger the ambience. love
