LAWRENCE & WISHART

● Subscribe Now . . .

Our journal continues to win a growing readership in almost all the countries of Africa. The last issue (No. 9) was completely sold out. We are no longer able to meet all the requests from our many new readers who write to us for copies of earlier numbers of the journal. This we regret very much, especially where the requests come from workers' groups, trade unions and political parties. However, to avoid disappointment we urge all our readers and friends to immediately complete the form below and send it with a postal order or remittance to cover a year's subscription.

For organised discussion groups wishing to enter group or bulk subscriptions, special concession rates are available. Write to the address below for details.
