

~~SOWETO STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE COUNCIL~~
~~PLEDGE SOLIDARITY WITH STUDENTS.~~

Black brothers and sisters of the soil, children of the world. We greet you all in the name of our hope Azania. Azania where the future of the Black Youth lies. The dream of Africa. Today we talk of the Black Youth because of their courage in their past events, and the proved aspirations. They are having thus pledging solidarity to every Black Student in South Africa (so it is called).

We would like to give our appreciation on behalf of your participation on the events of last year's liberation squabble against the white regime. It is a fact that there is no struggle without casualties, casualties we had but we won't be discouraged. The tree of liberation is thorny and difficult to prone, it only needs courageous people to take care of it, because courage is a sort of armour to the mind, and keeps an unwelcome impression from driving too deep into perception. He that stands bold and strong is not so easily pushed down. However when the enemy strikes hard, and a man has a great deal to grapple with, something will be felt in spite of all the bravery imaginable. To bear pain decently is a good sign of inward strength, and an undoubted proof of a great mind. Courage, by keeping the senses quite and the understanding clear, puts us in a condition to receive true intelligence, to make computations upon danger, and pronounce rightly upon that which threatens us, and therefore we say courage to you, courage to people of Azania.

We believed and we still believe that no one in the universe can resist the united students power. We pledge unity with the Black patriots of Azania to confront the South Africa's apartheid and racial discrimination in our land. On the otherhand not forgetting our parents who the Black Youth believe they have failed, for never was a human machine produced without many trials and many failures, whereas every human being was perfect at 195 production, but the domination and indoctrination of the white man was powerful over it. But courage is the master of fear. We have no sympathy whatever with those who would grudge our workmen and our common people the very highest acquisitions which their taste, or their time, or their inclinations, would lead them to realise, for next to the salvation of their souls, we certainly shy that the object of our fondest aspirations is the moral and intellectual, and as a sure consequence of this, the economical, advancement of the working classes, the one object, which, of all others in the wide range of political speculation, is the one which should be the dearest to the heart of every true patriot. And therefore we still have confidence in our parents, even those who are still in the mist of victory that they join their hands with their children

Your heroic determination will break the chains of slavery. Your destiny will be reached by your unity. Brothers and sisters of the soil, sons and daughters of Azania united we stand, united victory is certain Aluta Continua. The struggle - continues
